

Rumor of Another Extensive Fraud on the Government.

WASHINGTON, January 31, 1892.
A report is in circulation in this city, which originated in an undoubted source, that a very extensive fraud has been committed on the federal government, in a very curious manner. Mr. Webster was engaged on Wednesday, several hours, with the United States District Attorney, in preparing papers for the apprehension of the offender; but he got word of it, and left the city on Thursday morning before the necessary documents for his arrest were ready. No member of the cabinet is implicated, and the offender is not of much note, though the funds abstracted are said to be considerable, and were under the control of the State Department. It is not prudent or proper to give names, or to say more at this time. A few days will develop the whole truth. There is no doubt of the facts as I have stated them.

NEW YORK LEGISLATURE.

Senate.

ALBANY, Jan. 31, 1892.
NEW YORK VOLUNTEERS—NEGRO COMMISSION—ACADEMIES.
Mr. McMurtry (dem.) reported a bill for the further relief of the New York Volunteers. He also gave notice of a bill authorizing the appropriation of aid of colored emigrants to Liberia, and a bill making appropriations for academies for 1893.

The Committee of the Whole passed the bill to amend the charter of the New York City of Brooklyn.

Mr. Van Hook (dem.) asked that the bill be read a third time, which was agreed to, and the bill was passed.

Mr. Barlow (whig), by consent, introduced a bill authorizing the calling of a convention to revise and amend the constitution of the State.

The Committee of the Whole passed the bill to amend and extend the act appropriating the revenues of the State and United States deposits funds, passed July 11, 1891.

The Senate then adjourned.

Assembly.

The Kosuth Excitement in the West.

WELCOMING THE CITIZENS OF ALLEGANY—SPEECH BY GOV. JOHNSON—REPLY OF THE MAYOR—KOSUTH BLESSING AN INFANT NARRAG, ETC.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 30, 1892.

Kosuth met the citizens of Allegheny City, to-day. He was warmly received.

Ex-Gov. Johnson addressed Kosuth, and urged the people to petition the government to preserve the great principle that no nation shall be interfered with by the tyranny of other lands. He welcomed Kosuth in behalf of a people who knew that a country could not flourish where wealth only accumulated and men decayed, and who wanted men to grow, and not wealth to accumulate.

Kosuth replied briefly. He felt unwell, from the state of his health to stand up, feeling as he could wish, being scarcely able to stand upon his feet. He appeared before them in the position in which the citizenryman Franklin once stood—asking aid of a foreign nation. God blessed Franklin's endeavors, who obtained more than he (Kosuth) wished. If the country was not faithful to the principles upon which it was established, it would be as the soil was taken from beneath the feet of the church. It was a fallacy to say that the country was a land of justice and freedom as it was a land of honest men, before God, before I.

Mrs. Johnson, a member of the congregation, was announced as wishing to present her child, seven months old, whom she had named after Kosuth, before he had departed from the city.

The child was presented, and Kosuth pronounced the following blessing upon him—May he be wiser, may he be happier than his namesake, but may he love his country as I love mine—justice and freedom as I—and be honest as I, before God, before I.
